

I think that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen the present Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has greatly improved our time at home, by stopping unwanted calls.

We used to receive 3 to 5 calls per day, usually at supper time, now I rarely receive any.

The Telephone Privacy Law is one of the best laws past by our representatives.